HOKA UTMB Mont-Blanc 2027: The Race Week Schedule Revealed

A race schedule developed in close collaboration with local communities ahead of the UCI Cycling World Championships

At the end of August 2027, the Pays du Mont-Blanc region will be in the international sporting spotlight, hosting two major events: HOKA UTMB Mont-Blanc, which will take place from 22 to 28 August with an adapted race schedule, and the UCI Cycling World Championships.

Both events share a common ambition: to deliver an outstanding experience for everyone involved while ensuring they fit seamlessly into the territories hosting them, respecting local communities, their identity and the surrounding environment.

A joint effort to ensure the valley can make the most of both events

With two major international sporting events taking place in the region, careful coordination is essential. The City of Chamonix, the valley's municipalities, the local prefecture and HOKA UTMB Mont-Blanc have therefore worked closely together, alongside the UCI Championships organisers, to develop a revised schedule for the 2027 edition only.

The aim is to allow residents, runners and visitors alike to fully enjoy both events, while ensuring the smoothest possible organisation for all.

> "This calendar is the result of genuine collective work with the City of Chamonix-Mont-Blanc, the surrounding municipalities and the government authorities. Hosting two international events simultaneously in the Mont-Blanc region required us to rethink the way we organise things, so that everyone can fully enjoy their highlight event while respecting the constraints of the local area and its residents. We are continuing to work on the rest of the programme with the same philosophy and look forward to seeing you at the end of August for the 24th edition!"

An adapted race week to accommodate both major sporting events

The UCI Cycling World Championships will take place across Haute-Savoie from 24 August to 5 September. Some of these competitions will take place from the 27th to the 29th, including the road cycling competitions in Sallanches-Domancy, just outside the Chamonix Valley. The Men's Elite Road Race will take place on Sunday, 29 August.

This coincides with the final weekend of HOKA UTMB Mont-Blanc, traditionally centred around the event's flagship race, the UTMB.

To ensure the best possible conditions for both events, the HOKA UTMB Mont-Blanc schedule has been exceptionally adjusted for 2027.

- The PTL will take place from Sunday 22 to Saturday 28 August.
- The other races, excluding the finals (MCC, TDS, ETC, YCC and Mini), will be held from Sunday 22 to Tuesday 24 August, with the detailed schedule to be confirmed in due course.
- The UTMB and CCC will start on Wednesday 25 August.
- The week will conclude on Saturday 28 August with the OCC, on the eve of the UCI Road World Championships Men's Elite Road Race.
