Spectator Essentials

Follow your runner: Spectators can use LiveTrail for timing updates. LiveTrail will show the actual times runners cross the timing mat at each checkpoint. Any predicted times between checkpoints are estimates based on the runner's progress to that point and may not be accurate if they speed up or slow down. Please see the next page for more information.

Park access: Vehicles travelling to Perisher or Thredbo need a NSW National Parks Pass. See next page for where to purchase it.

Where to cheer: See race specific pages in this guide.

Supporting runners: You can cheer on course, however please only provide food, drinks and gear where crew assistance is permitted (No crew assistance is allowed for Kosci30).

Spectator Food & drinks: Can be purchased at the Perisher start, Charlotte Pass Stillwell Café and Thredbo Friday Flat. Opening hours are limited at locations, other than Friday Flat. Food options along the course are very limited, so stock up on snacks and supplies before leaving town.

Lost property: Ask at Event Information for lost or found items.

Phone reception : Cell coverage can be patchy or non existent in places. Make sure you download directions before you leave your accommodation, and note that the live tracking info may not always be available.

LiveTrail will show the actual times runners cross the timing mat at the start, each checkpoint and the finish. Any predicted times between checkpoints are estimates based on the runner's progress to that point and may not be accurate if they speed up or slow down.

Runners can also choose to share their actual location through the app, which may provide a more accurate indication of where they are on course.

Please be aware that updates can be delayed or affected by limited connectivity. There is no guaranteed way to track a runner's exact location, so spectators should allow plenty of time and discuss expected timings with their runner before race day.

There is free parking at Perisher for Kosci30, Kosci50, and Kosci100 start lines. We will be using the main Perisher Carpark, and only if it is full will we use the overflow lot at Smiggins Hole with a free shuttle bus for the 5 min trip. Please allow plenty of time to get to the start line.

Shuttle Bus Info & Locations

START LINE SHUTTLE BUSES & SKITUBE TRAIN

Shuttle bus tickets must be purchased in advance via your Runner's Participant Dashboard
You can view the full schedule of shuttle buses and more detailed information on bus stops including maps here.

Travelling from Thredbo & Crackenback to Kosci30, 50 & 100 starts

We are excited to announce that this year we will be using the Perisher Skitube to help get runners and spectators from Thredbo and Crackenback to Perisher for the start line of the Kosci50, Kosci30 & Kosci100 races.

You do not need to book a separate ticket for this Skitube Service, it is included in your bus ticket purchase. We have adjusted the start line shuttle bus schedule (for runners and spectators coming from Thredbo and Crackenback) and use of the train is now part of your start line transportation journey.

Instead of a 90 min bus journey, you will now have a shorter 20-min bus trip to Bullocks Flat, and then transfer to a 10-min Skitube train journey which takes you directly to the start line at Perisher. As a result you get a bit of extra sleep too! Please refer to the following pages for detailed timings.

Travelling from Jindabyne, or to the Miler Start

For KosciMiler runners & spectators, or anyone catching start line shuttles from Jindabyne, there is no change to your scheduled pick-up and departure times. Please refer to the following pages for detailed timings.
